“We know to be successful in product development, you need a partner that goes beyond just delivering ingredients”

Dear Partners,

At DSM we know that purpose is the key difference in driving consumer interest and differentiating your product on the store shelf. That's why we pour all our passion, expertise and innovation into every Premix we develop. We know to be successful in product development, you need a partner that goes beyond just delivering ingredients. You need a partner passionate about making the world's growing population healthier and providing the broadest fortification capabilities, so you can fuel your consumers' highest health ambitions. A partner that's motivated by streamlining your operations, supporting your business growth and getting you to market faster. This requires a consumer-led approach paired with unmatched expert services across multiple market segments and applications that can uncover and guide you through product development pitfalls before they happen, saving you time and resources. All delivered with the quality and peace of mind you deserve from a partner you can trust. It takes more than ingredients to deliver breakthrough consumer-inspired Premix solutions, it takes an innovative and reliable purpose-led partner. Connect with us today to see what's possible, because where others see products, we see purpose.

Kind Regards,

Michel Meertens
Vice-President Premix Operations HNC

An aerial view of two people in kayaks on a body of water. The person on the left is in a light blue kayak, wearing a red and orange wetsuit, and is laughing with their eyes closed. The person on the right is in a white kayak with a blue mat, wearing a grey and white wetsuit with a yellow life vest, and is laughing with their hand covering their face. A black paddle is visible in the white kayak. The water is dark blue with some green algae or seaweed visible. The text 'No two people are the same so neither are any of our solutions' is overlaid in white on the right side of the image.

Customized from the start Consumers at the heart

DSM Premixes are designed with your consumer in mind.

Whatever the product you are trying to develop,
or the need you are trying to meet, we offer a creative partnership, helping you find the right solutions to drive you from concept to consumer.

Our difference:
We understand the global trends that will give you the edge

DSM has the pulse of today's consumers health ambitions. Leveraging our global consumer trend research, we can help you understand the needs of today while anticipating the demands of tomorrow.

Hundreds of consumer -driven concepts to inspire what's possible

Our proprietary research has prompted over 300 consumer driven concepts that will help stimulate ideas and inspire you with what's possible. We will then enable you to translate these needs into products your consumers will love.

A person is shown from the chest up, swimming underwater. They are wearing a bright pink wetsuit and large, clear diving goggles. The water is a clear, vibrant blue. The person's expression is neutral and focused. The lighting is natural, coming from above, creating a bright and clear underwater scene.
